We are excited to announce that the 3rd Annual Charity Golf Outing and Paint-n-Sip recently held at the Ligonier Country Club raised $21,000 for the Greater Latrobe Partners in Education Foundation (GLPIEF). Thank you to all who supported the events! The funds raised will be used specifically for students with special needs in the Latrobe School District and the autistic support, learning support and life skills classrooms.

Over 20 amazing auction items were generously donated and displayed for the golfers and painters to win!

Additional prizes included Pirate and Steeler tickets, a million dollar shoot out for the winning twosome, several hole in one contests and tickets to a major sporting event of the winner's choice.

Special Recognition to our planning committee consisting of Jessica Golden, Sharon LeJeune, Tawnya Rockwell and Jessica Urbanik as well as our Volunteers including Juliana DeStein, Bree Edgerly, Laurie Golobish, Gladys Laick, Amanda Mayger, Becky Quinn, Sheri Slezak and Janice Urbanik. Your help was appreciated more than you know!

GOAL Magazine's Paint-n-Sip attendees show off their spring landscapes. This was the first year for the Paint-n-Sip, which was held in the new pavilion at the club and taught by artist Sarah Hunter. Supplies were donated by The Friends of the Arts from Latrobe Art Center and each participant received a GOAL Magazine wine glass.

Tony Slezak, Lester Sutton, Jessica Marazza, and Bill Urbanik (left to right) at the pre-event putting contest for GOAL Magazine's Charity Golf Outing sponsored by SecondHalf Coach Wealth Management. Slezak, Marazza and Urbanik are partners of SecondHalf Coach Wealth Management based in Latrobe, PA. Sutton, President/CEO of Aggressive Grinding and Greater Latrobe Partners in Education Foundation Board member won the putting contest and received two tickets for a Carnival Cruise. The top four donors to the golf outing competed in the putting contest.
